

Me, teach my child to read?

Yes, parents you can! It's easy as...

Instill a lifelong love of reading in your child now!

JOIN US FOR OUR Teach Me to Read at Home[®] Family Literacy Nights!

The Pottstown School District, in partnership with Step By Step Learning[®], will be offering a series of Parent Literacy Nights for students who are pre-kindergarten and kindergarten ages and their parents.

These Parent Literacy Nights will focus on helping parents develop the skills to assist their children in learning to read at home. The Series is a FREE tool to help you promote literacy within your home.

Come to any or all of the Event Nights...In addition to a wealth of quality information, there will be refreshments, prizes, raffles and games each night of the series. A grand prize raffle will be held on the last date for all families who attend 5 or more of the Nights!

This is a wonderful opportunity to support your child's reading skills and encourage their future success!
